WATER TOWER PLACE OFFERS A VARIETY OF UNIQUE DINING AND ENTERTAINMENT OPTIONS

Water Tower Place continues to lead the Chicago market with innovative and unique dining and entertainment concepts that complement the center's retail collection. Restaurants include freshii, Wow Bao, FOODease Market, M Burger, Mity Nice and foodlife, a one-of-a-kind restaurant featuring 14 distinctive kitchens, each with a different menu by adding Harry Caray's 7th Inning Stretch and Chicago Sports Museum is the newest addition, a must-experience mecca for all sports fans!

The new Harry Caray's 7th Inning Stretch Restaurant & Bar showcases photographs from the renowned sportscaster's private collection as well as authentic sports memorabilia. The restaurant features its own spin on classic American comfort food. The adjacent Chicago Sports Museum offers a highly interactive experience for visitors to explore the legends and lore of Chicago sports. It combines hightech interactive experiences — including skill challenges and simulated experiences — with unique sports memorabilia, and an impressive collection of game-used treasures and other artifacts. Plus, restaurant guests will receive complimentary admission to the Chicago Sports Museum.

Water Tower Place is also home to Broadway In Chicago's newest venue, Broadway Playhouse, a state-of-the-art live performance theatre featuring an intimate 549-seat auditorium and spacious lobby. Performances feature contemporary plays and musicals, as well as classics from Broadway and beyond. The theater entrance is located off of Chestnut Street in the Water Tower Place Concourse. Visitors can find complete performance and theatre information. at broadwayinchicago.com

All visitors to Water Tower Place are eligible to receive a Premier Passport filled with hundreds of dollars in shopping and dining savings, special offers and amenities from participating retailers and restaurants.
